Dear [Redacted]

I was pleased to learn of your safe escape from the recent tragic events in South Vietnam.

I trust that your former counterpart, Colonel Channon and the Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Services will soon be able to find suitable sponsors for you and your family. We have found that the Voluntary Agencies have been doing an excellent job in placing good men such as yourself in positions where their experience and training allow them to meet the opportunities of the future.

While my own organization does not have an appropriate job to offer you at this time, you can be sure that you will be kept in mind. If we can find a suitable job for you either within or outside of this Agency we will contact you in the future.

Please accept my best wishes for a more happy life in this country.

Sincerely,

/s/ W. E. Colby
